RE: Your Recent Automobile Accident

We're sorry to hear about your recent automobile accident. The purpose of this letter is to provide you information about your potential case, our firm, and to enclose our contact information if you should choose to contact us. We obtained your information from the Ohio Department of Public Safety website.

All the money in the world is not going to make up for a serious injury. However, our firm can help you navigate a sea of insurance companies, creditors, and medical bills. You deserve to be compensated for your injuries, but insurance companies are motivated to pay lower settlements to stay in business. Our team of professionals is experienced in forcing the insurance company to pay what is fair. If not, we are prepared to advocate for you in trial. Our team would be happy to handle all of the tasks associated with your potential personal injury case. We pride ourselves on:

Emphasis on Results — We understand that you're hiring us for a reason.

Communication — The key to any successful attorney-client relationship is quality communication. We'll make ourselves available, and keep you up to date about your case.

Fair Fees — We will take your case on a 25% contingency fee. This means that you'll owe no legal fees until the completion of your case, and we'll take 25% of the settlement/award value, plus any agreed upon costs that we advance on your behalf.

Experience — Our lawyers have over eighty years of combined legal experience.

Trial Tested — If the insurance companies won't give a fair settlement, we've proven in the past that we can get results at trial as well.

Our representation for personal injury cases includes services that most accident victims don't even think about, including:

- Comprehensive review of insurance policies;
- Determination of all sources of insurance coverage;
- Gathering evidence from the crash;
- Taking witness statements;
- Analyzing fault;
- Analyzing subrogation;

- Navigating med pay to your greatest benefit;
- Negotiating with insurance companies;
- Negotiating your medical bills and liens;
- Presenting your evidence in a demand letter;
- Putting companies on notice of your claim;
- Reviewing Medical Records and Bills;
- Evaluating Underinsured Motorist Coverage

UNDERSTANDING YOUR RIGHTS*

If you have been in an accident, or a family member has been injured or killed in a crash or some other incident, you have many important decisions to make. It is important for you to consider the following:

- 1 Make and keep records — If your situation involves a motor vehicle crash, regardless of who may be at fault, it is helpful to obtain a copy of the police report, learn the identity of any witnesses, and obtain photographs of the scene, vehicles, and any visible injuries. Keep copies of receipts of all your expenses and medical care related to the incident.
- 2 You do not have to sign anything — You may not want to give an interview or recorded statement without first consulting with an attorney, because the statement can be used against you. If you may be at fault or have been charged with a traffic or other offense, it may be advisable to consult an attorney right away. However, if you have insurance, your insurance policy probably requires you to cooperate with your insurance company and to provide a statement to the company. If you fail to cooperate with your insurance company, it may void your coverage.
- 3 Your interests versus interests of insurance company — Your interests and those of the other person's insurance company are in conflict. Your interests may also be in conflict with your own insurance company. Even if you are not sure who is at fault, you should contact your own insurance company and advise the company of the incident to protect your insurance coverage.
- 4 There is a time limit to file an insurance claim — Legal rights, including filing a lawsuit, are subject to time limits. You should ask what time limits apply to your claim. You may need to act immediately to protect your rights.
- 5 Get it in writing — You may want to request that any offer of settlement from anyone be put in writing, including a written explanation of the type of damages which they are willing to cover.
- 6 Legal assistance may be appropriate — You may consult with an attorney before you sign any document or release of claims. A release may cut off all future rights against others, obligate you to repay past medical bills or disability benefits, or jeopardize future benefits. If your interests conflict with your own insurance company, you always have the right to discuss the matter with an attorney of your choice, which may be at your own expense.
- 7 How to find an attorney — If you need professional advice about a legal problem but do not know an attorney, you may wish to check with relatives, friends, neighbors, your employer, or co-workers who may be able to recommend an attorney. Your local bar association may have a lawyer referral service that can be found in the Yellow Pages or on the Internet.
- 8 Check a lawyer's qualifications — Before hiring any lawyer, you have the right to know the lawyer's background, training, and experience in dealing with cases similar to yours.
- 9 How much will it cost? — In deciding whether to hire a particular lawyer, you should discuss, and the lawyer's written fee agreement should reflect: (a) How is the lawyer to be paid? If you already have a settlement offer, how will that affect a contingent fee arrangement? (b) How are the expenses involved in your case, such as telephone calls, deposition costs, and fees for expert witnesses, to be paid? Will these costs be advanced by the lawyer or charged to you as they are incurred? Since you are obligated to pay all expenses even if you lose your case, how will payment be arranged? (c) Who will handle your case? If the case goes to trial, who will be the trial attorney?

This information is not intended as a complete description of your legal rights, but as a checklist of some of the important issues you should consider.

*THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO, WHICH GOVERNS THE CONDUCT OF LAWYERS IN THE STATE OF OHIO, NEITHER PROMOTES NOR PROHIBITS THE DIRECT SOLICITATION OF PERSONAL INJURY VICTIMS. THE COURT DOES REQUIRE THAT, IF SUCH A SOLICITATION IS MADE, IT MUST INCLUDE THE ABOVE DISCLOSURE.

RE: Your Recent Automobile Accident

We're sorry to hear about your recent automobile accident. The purpose of this letter is to provide you information about your potential case, our firm, and to enclose our contact information if you should choose to contact us. We obtained your information from the Ohio Department of Public Safety website.

All the money in the world is not going to make up for a serious injury. However, our firm can help you navigate a sea of insurance companies, creditors, and medical bills. You deserve to be compensated for your injuries, but insurance companies are motivated to pay lower settlements to stay in business. Our team of professionals is experienced in forcing the insurance company to pay what is fair. If not, we are prepared to advocate for you in trial. Our team would be happy to handle all of the tasks associated with your potential personal injury case. We pride ourselves on:

Emphasis on Results — We understand that you're hiring us for a reason.

Communication — The key to any successful attorney-client relationship is quality communication. We'll make ourselves available, and keep you up to date about your case.

Fair Fees — We will take your case on a 25% contingency fee. This means that you'll owe no legal fees until the completion of your case, and we'll take 25% of the settlement/award value, plus any agreed upon costs that we advance on your behalf.

Experience — Our lawyers have over eighty years of combined legal experience.

Trial Tested — If the insurance companies won't give a fair settlement, we've proven in the past that we can get results at trial as well.

Our representation for personal injury cases includes services that most accident victims don't even think about, including:

- Comprehensive review of insurance policies;
- Determination of all sources of insurance coverage;
- Gathering evidence from the crash;
- Taking witness statements;
- Analyzing fault;
- Analyzing subrogation;

- Navigating med pay to your greatest benefit;
- Negotiating with insurance companies;
- Negotiating your medical bills and liens;
- Presenting your evidence in a demand letter;
- Putting companies on notice of your claim;
- Reviewing Medical Records and Bills;
- Evaluating Underinsured Motorist Coverage

If you would like to set up a no-obligation free half-hour initial consultation, please give us a call at (614) 534-1355 and our staff would be happy to assist you. We are also ready to meet with you by phone or by various methods of video conferencing including Skype, Zoom and Facetime.
